Traveling Europe this summer?

Our web traffic from Europe is up 40%.

This is of course due to our original French version of which we were very proud to add shortly after the initial launch of www.timesharingstyle.com this past October. Also, the article published in Journal Accès in January, which can be found on our website www.timesharingstyle.com/media/ALAU_015.pdf has also been picked up by the French Press according to google.fr.

For those planning an European vacation, please look for this banner on our home page website for this very useful link, EUROPA. This website is meant to provide very useful and practical information about traveling in Europe, from documents needed to what to do, how to communicate, so on! Bon Voyage!

Some of our new additions!

Carpediem Asissi Living Club, Italy

Assisi is much more than a pretty hill town. Thousands come to worship in Assisi's magnificent churches, and to pray to Francis of Assisi, a much-beloved saint. Call early to get a summer week and experience Northern Italy!

Club Vacances toutes Saisons. Beaupré (Just outside Québec City)

Nestled in natural settings only minutes away from famous Mont Ste-Anne ski Mountain, this resort is a pied-à-terre not only for people wanting to ski in the winter, mountain bike or golf in the summer, but also allows for day-trip to visit and discover Quebec City.
